Privacy Policy

Rev. 9/2015

Organic Intelligence® respects and is committed to protecting your right to privacy. Personally identifiable information such as IP addresses, cookie information, and pages visited on www.organicintelligence.org may be automatically received and recorded on OI server logs when accessing the site.

We follow all reasonable and/or legally required steps to limit the access to, use or disclosure of, and requests for protected information; if necessary we limit information to a minimum to accomplish the required purpose.

We take precautions to safeguard your personal information against theft, loss and misuse, as well as against unauthorized access, alteration, disclosure and destruction.

Organic Intelligence will never sell lists or email addresses.

Organic Intelligence online credit card processing is secured through VeriSign, PayPal and/or Authorize.net. For your security all credit card information is encrypted when stored on servers to which we would have access.
